THE TOWNS AROUND.

BARNET.

Election night the Barnet cornet band gave a promenade concert in the town hall, and gave by bulletin election returns from the Western Union telegraph company and the New England telephone and telegraph company. The Ladies' society provided an oyster supper.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs held a semi-public box supper election night and received election returns by telephone.

The telephone toll station has been moved from Burbank & Robie's store to Laughlin's.

The Barnet cornet band is now holding rehearsals in the Odd Fellows' room instead of at the engine house.

J. Q. A. Lang has been putting a piazza on the front of Dr. Hazleton's house, which greatly improves the appearance of the building.

Rev. H. N. Pringle and family of Anoka, Minn., have been in town this week visiting Mr. Pringle's uncle, A. S. Laughlin.

Mrs. Woodbury presented the cause of the A. M. A. Sabbath morning in a very stirring and interesting manner. She also gave the Y. P. S. C. E. a short talk Saturday evening.

The Pioneer electric light company are talking of removing their plant to McIntire and lighting both villages.

Miss Mabel Brock closed the village school and Miss Alice Smith the Joe's Brook school today.

The pupils in Miss Nellie Laughlin's school at West Barnet gave a literary entertainment at their closing exercises this evening, the proceeds of which are to be used towards procuring a school library.

About fifty Barnet citizens with the band and drum corps went to St. Johnsbury Tuesday evening to participate in the torchlight procession. Barnet was the only town outside of St. Johnsbury that was represented in the parade.

Use less soap by using Harmless.

WEST BARNET.

Mrs. Wishart, who moved from here a year ago to live with her son, Dr. Wishart at Calais, is to return to her house a mile below the village.

E. Parker has bought the slaughter house that once was the property of Mrs. Clark, and has moved it to his place, having made several improvements in its appearance.

Two unexpected persons pleasantly greeted at our late town meeting were Abner Howard and Daniel Townsend, both having passed through a serious illness last spring.

Two democrats who were solacing themselves over McKinley's election the other day saying, "We will have them next time. Four years is only a little while to wait."

A brother of Dr. Dickerman's wife has been sick with inflammatory rheumatism and another brother has been there caring for him.

O. C. Wood has had another car load of apples, which he sells from 75 cents to $1 a barrel.

Almont Silsby took his first load of goods into his logging camp in the East Haven woods Monday.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. W. E. Roundy next Tuesday afternoon. Notwithstanding the bad weather there was a good attendance at the church last Sunday evening to hear Mrs. Ella Keith and all felt repaid. Those who were not present missed a good thing.

Gilbert Davis and Harry Quimby will soon begin business in Lyndonville, dealing in gentlemen's furnishings and boots and shoes.

Dr. Davis and wife spent last week with their daughter at Newport.

Evening Star Chapter No. 28, O. E. S., have an oyster supper Monday evening, Nov. 23d, at Masonic Hall. After the rendering of a good literary programme, a laughable farce will follow entitled "Female Masonry," of which the characters are as follows: Most illustrious High Mogul, Grand High Pull Hauler, Sister Royal Panjandrum, Sister High Muck a Muck, Sister Hobbles-the-Hoy, Sister Gobble Gobble, Sister Linen Draper, Sister A. F., and A. M., Grand Inner Guard of the Temple Keyhole, Grand Outer Guard of the Temple Keyhole.

S. H. Reed has new clapboarded his house and is making other repairs.

It don't rot clothes—Harmless soap.

DANVILLE.

All interested in forming a village improvement society are requested to meet at the library Saturday evening, Oct. 14, at seven o'clock. This is a subject in which everyone should be interested. Something of the kind has been talked about for years, and it is time something was done. There should be a full attendance of both ladies and gentlemen.

S. O. Morse is recovering from quite a severe illness.

Charles Hatch is still very sick.

Mrs. Ned Stocker accompanied her husband to Montpelier this week.

Charles Collins and wife have returned from East Andover, N. H.

Edward Russell has so far recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia as to be able to be removed to his home in Enfield, N. H.

Dr. F. L. Beckwith is in town and has his office at the Elm House.

W. H. Burbank of Barnet was in town last Friday.

There will be a sociable at the Methodist church parlors Wednesday evening, Nov. 18th, to which all are cordially invited to attend.

A number of citizens of Danville can testify to the relief they have experienced from wearing the rheumatism cure rings which J. E. Tinker is selling. The metals of which these rings are composed generate a mild current of electricity which dissolves the acidity of the blood, the cause of rheumatism.

Lemuel Russell of St. Johnsbury bought the F. A. Morse farm at the auction on Wednesday. The farm consists of 220 acres with excellent buildings and sold for $2875.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hill of Plainfield have been visiting their son, Edson K. Hill.

NORTH DANVILLE.

R. W. Winslow's auction was not largely attended Tuesday. Cows went from $16 to $25 and other things correspondingly low.

Rev. F. A. Palmer and A. M. McFarland and wife attended the 75th anniversary of the F. B. church at Texas Tuesday.

The village schools close a successful term today.

Mrs. O. M. Bickford and son, F. E. Bickford, spent a couple of days with relatives and friends in Cabot the first of the week.

Mrs. G. D. Wells is caring for Mrs. Harley Blodgett.

Susie Shaw of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with her friend, Susie Wells, of this place.

WEST DANVILLE.

E. P. Brickette is building a cottage for John and Henry Buck on the O. B. Flint place near the pond for a summer resort.

George Merrill and Son's barn was burglarized last Friday night by entering the basement and two harnesses worth from $30 to $40 belonging to George W. Shepherd were stolen. Our thieves are getting bold but they will come to the rope's end if not careful. They are watched.

School closed on Friday last in the usual form.

Mrs. Hannah Bean is doing considerable repairs on her house.

Alex. Stevenson has put an extension on his shop covering his drive wheel.

George W. Shepherd has been at work for George Merrill and Son recently, but started on the road Tuesday.

The post office is very convenient as it is, but there are two petitions out for an appointment under McKinley's administration and to move to new quarters.

It don't rot clothes—Harmless soap.

HARDWICK.

A republican torchlight procession was held on Monday evening. The parade formed on Mill street and marched on all the main streets throughout the village. The parade was headed by the band, and the boys followed on horse back with loud huzzas and hurrahs for McKinley. Residences and stores were magnificently illuminated along the route and withal it was an unprecedented success.

Henry Webber was the recipient of a free ride up Main street Monday on a wheelbarrow. The motive power was furnished by Bert Paige, who had been foolish enough to bet that Bryan would be elected.

Arthur Grant has gone to Hallowell, Me., where he has secured work cutting granite.

The lecture given by Mr. Lee of Rhode Island, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias, was well attended. The Imperial Quartette of St. Johnsbury rendered some very fine selections. This was one of the first entertainments given here of late, and was enjoyed by all who attended.

The front fences of Mr. Wells, Mr. Clement and Mr. Hall on Walcott street have been moved back to the street line.

Congressman Powers of Morrisville was in town last Monday.

The repairs on the old tannery building are being carried forward with rapidity. When this is completed it will be a five tenement house.

A representative of the law firm of Bates & May was in town on Monday.

G. H. Almon was in town the first of the week on business in relation to the electric light plant.

Nov. 8 was observed as Harvest Sunday. The audience room was appropriately decorated and there were sermons appropriate to the occasion. The C. E. society gave a Harvest supper on Friday evening.

LYNDON.

H. H. Frye, in the meat business on and off here for many years, has sold out on account of ill health to Will Brown of Lyndonville, who takes possession the first of December.

E. K. Quimby and wife left last Saturday for Pawtucket, R. I., where they will spend a month or two and then go South to spend the winter. Miss Nellie Quimby left at the same time for Boston, where she will spend the winter with her brother, W. L. Quimby.

This evening the new landlord, Mr. Warner, opens the Lyndon House for a general good time and the village people will give him a good send off. An oyster supper will be served and the St. Johnsbury orchestra will furnish music for a promenade in the hall. The hotel has been equipped with electric lights which will be turned on this evening for the first time. A delegation is expected from St. Johnsbury and a good time is assured.

LYNDON CENTER.

Hon. T. N. Van returned from his European trip last Saturday. His son Davis is also at home.

Rev. E. Owen, former pastor of the Baptist church here, died in Portsmouth, N. H., last Friday morning, a shock of paralysis causing his death. Mr. Owen was one of the most prominent men in causing the re-opening of Lyndon Institute in 1893. He was also a prominent member of the Odd Fellow lodge at Lyndonville and an influential and much respected citizen during his residence here.

LYNDONVILLE.

Catholic fair reopens Monday evening and will continue during the week, probably closing Saturday evening in Music hall.

Rev. W. C. Johnson will address the young people in the Methodist church next Sunday evening. Subject, "Utilities of Counter-Forces."

Prof. Buell gives his stereopticon show in Music Hall Sunday evening. The entertainment will be in the nature of a sacred and illustrated lecture.

Chandler Bullock is illing and there is very little hope of his recovery. Mr. Bullock is one of the old settlers in Lyndonville and all regret to hear of his serious illness.

H. L. Parker left Wednesday night for Boston on a business trip. While there he will attend a banquet of the Massachusetts district deputy Odd Fellows in the United States hotel. On his return next Tuesday he will stop at Ludlow to attend a meeting of the trustees of Odd Fellows home.

A number from here attended the wedding of Fred G. Francis and Alice Powell at St. Johnsbury Tuesday evening.

The singers of Lyndonville are rehearsing the operetta "The Merry Milkmaids." It will be given for the benefit of the town library. The musical director is H. C. Wilson and pianist Mrs. H. E. Colby.

The electric light question is still agitating the public mind. A dozen of the business men were in Montpelier last week presenting both sides of the question, and the people are now anxiously awaiting news from the capital. There is no doubt but that a large majority of the people are in favor of the amendment.

The post office war is on. S. J. Wilson and E. J. Blodgett have announced their aspirations for the office and others will be in the field. A. D. Paige, S. B. Hutchins and H. L. Parker probably would not refuse the office and all would be good men. The matter will have to be decided by a caucus of the republican voters, which may result in bringing out a dark horse. It was rumored on the streets the first of the week that Prof. W. E. Ronger would like to return here, and wouldn't mind if some of his friends would start him on the road to the post office. Blodgett has a petition with many signatures already attached to it. The office is a good one, and there will probably be a lively scramble for it.

MCINDOE FALLS.

Mrs. Woodbury gave a very interesting talk, last Sunday evening on American home missions. Owing to the bad weather the audience was not as large as usual, about $4.00 was taken by contributions.
